A composite image featuring a treehouse in a large tree, a modern building, and a grassy field at sunset. The treehouse is built into a large, leafy tree with a wooden structure and a small window. A person is visible inside the treehouse. To the right, a modern building with large windows is visible, some of which are lit up. The foreground is a vast, green grassy field. The sky is filled with dramatic, colorful clouds, suggesting a sunset or sunrise.
